For six months, a fitness coach made $17K one month and $8K the next.

When he focused on selling, delivery piled up.
When he focused on delivery, sales dried up.

He was doing content, funnels, calls, nurturing, closing, and delivery himself.

Every part of his funnel worked. The bottleneck was him.

We took the middle of his funnel off his plate first, with no ads and no extra content. That alone got him to $30K to $40K a month.

Then we kept his $5K price, added a $10K pay-in-full group coaching option, and offered his existing clients a $5K mastermind seat.

About four months in, he was making over $80K a month.
