20 leads is not enough to kill an ad.

Say 2 of 20 book a call. That’s 10%.

With only 20 people behind it, the real rate could be anywhere from about 3% to 30%.

That range holds a dead ad and a winner. You can’t tell which one you have yet.

Ask “out of how many” before you ask “is it good or bad.”

A rate needs people behind it before it means anything.
